We are the Society

We are the Society of Friday night visits, and Monday morning mercy; of fresh perspectives and a view of the possible; of smiles, shared moments, houses turned into homes, and second-hand into second chances.

We are the Society of clothes to renew confidence, and souls showered with compliments and angst addressed with attention.

We are the Society of dignity, delivered to our companions door, and smiles volunteered, of boxes filled with food; a promise for the future, and a pillow that says happily ever after.

We are the Society of love and laughter; respect, courage, empathy, commitment, compassion, integrity and advocacy.

We are the Society of serving, being a server, and earning that privilege; and holding out hope, and helping with the power bill, the empty pantry and the phone; and making sure no one is left alone, without a friend.

We are the Society of making each other feel whole, bright, happier.

We are the St Vincent de Paul Society.

Questions

1. Which part of the video/poem resonates most with you? Why?
2. In the video/poem we see people serving others in many different ways. Which parts of serving do you like to do the most? Which are you best at?
3. Coming into Winter, what might be the effect on those who are without a home, or facing financial difficulty?
4. How might you serve someone?
