NAIDOC Week celebrates the history, culture and achievements of First Nations People.

2. Research the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags. What do the colours and symbols represent?

3. Research Indigenous role models throughout Australia. Choose ONE person who you are particularly interested in and research their life, experiences (both cultural and lived) and their achievements Print out a picture of your chosen person and record your findings on the back of their picture. Once you are done, collate your work with your classmates and create a 'Wall of Fame' to celebrate First Nations People.
